Type of meeting:

RPPTL Construction Law Committee Monthly Telephone Conference & CLE

Introduction

Sanjay Kurian

CLE Presentation – –

“Negotiation or Litigation”

The days of using generic insurance requirements are over. Many insurance policy provisions state that “coverage shall not be broader than that required by contract”, limiting its maximum scope to what you have drafted, but fail to address the widespread use of invisible exclusions. Does your wording adequately protect not only your client but also your firm? This discussion will provide direction regarding drafting better insurance prerequisites.
