

STEAK BBQ WITH THE NATIONAL SAF OFFICERS, COUNCIL AND STAFF

6:00 PM - Saturday, June 7, 2008 - Priest River Experimental Forest, Idaho

The Society of American Foresters (SAF) Council is holding its June 5-7, 2008 meeting at the Priest River Experimental Forest (PREF) in northern Idaho. This is a fabulous opportunity for Inland Empire SAF members to meet, interact with, and express their ideas and opinions to the current staff, officers, and governing body of their professional society, as well as an opportunity for potential new members to gain exposure to SAF.

The planned schedule for the meeting will have several Council Officers, District Representatives, Committee Chairs, and Staff members arriving on

- ◆ Thursday evening (6/5), when Russ Graham will give his now-famous fireside chat on the amazing century-long history of forestry at PREF.
- ◆ A tour of the grounds, the museum, and some of the forest plots and experiments will fill Friday morning (6/6).
- ◆ The Council will proceed with its meeting Friday afternoon (6/6) and all day Saturday (6/7).
- ◆ A "cook-your-own" BBQ steak (provided) dinner ($15/person - see menu below, families welcome) is planned for Saturday evening (6/7).

All SAF members are invited to attend any or all of these activities. The history talk is legendary. The tour is forestry information unavailable elsewhere. The BBQ is an informal chance to gain perspective on myriad SAF functions, and for members' voices to be heard face-to-face by current SAF leaders.
