ORDER ON MID-CONTINENT CASUALTY COMPANY'S MOTION TO INTERVENE

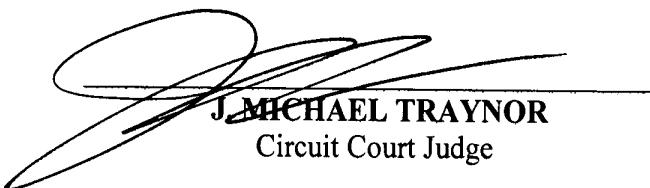

THIS CAUSE came before the Court upon Mid-Continent Casualty Company's Motion to Intervene filed April 16, 2012. The Court has reviewed and considered the Motion, and has heard and considered the argument of counsel for the parties and the proposed intervenor, and being otherwise fully advised in the premises finds as follows:

Mid-Continent Casualty Company moves to intervene for the purpose of submitting special interrogatories to the Court to be used by the jury. Trial in this matter was set to begin Monday, April 23, 2012. Mid-Continent Casualty Company waited until the eve of trial to file the instant motion, and therefore, the Court finds that the motion should be denied. Accordingly, it is:

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that:

1. Mid-Continent Casualty Company's Motion to Intervene is and the same is hereby DENIED.

DONE AND ORDERED in Chambers, in St. Johns County, St. Augustine, Florida, this 20th day of April, 2012.
