Background

Lyndon Bittle is a litigation and appellate partner at Carrington Coleman in Dallas and heads the firm's insurance practice, representing businesses, governmental entities, and individuals in disputes concerning insurance coverage, indemnity claims, construction or manufacturing liability, and other matters. His coverage practice includes policy review and advice in addition to litigation in state and federal courts at the trial and appellate levels. He is proud to have been elected a Fellow in the American College of Coverage and Extracontractual Counsel (ACCEC) and to have been named a Texas Super Lawyer in insurance law every year since 2012.

Mr. Bittle was the lead editor and chapter author for the ABA book, REASONABLE EXPECTATIONS: INTERPRETING INSURANCE POLICIES IN COMMON LAW JURISDICTIONS (2016). He is a former chair and current active vice-chair of the ABA TIPS Insurance Coverage Litigation Committee (ICLC). Mr. Bittle has participated in panel presentations on a wide range of coverage issues at the ICLC's Mid-Year CLE Program and co-chaired three annual Insurance in the Construction Industry seminars in Dallas. He writes the Defense and Settlements column for IRMI.com and has authored numerous articles and book chapters on insurance coverage issues for the ICLC and other organizations.

Mr. Bittle also maintains a vibrant appellate practice in Texas courts and the Fifth Circuit. He is Board Certified in Civil Appellate Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization, and has been listed in The Best Lawyers in America for his appellate work every year since 2016.

Before attending Boalt Hall School of Law at the University of California, Berkeley, and embarking on his legal career, Mr. Bittle owned and managed small businesses.
