

Second Town Hall Meeting March 1, 2005

WHAT: A second Town Hall meeting, with facilitator, to review and discuss preliminary suggestions for future 1912 Center uses, business strategies, and evaluation criteria; Overview of next steps that will lead to a final set of use committee recommendations to City Council this Spring about the 1912 Center's future.

WHO: Interested Moscow citizens and stakeholder organizations who wish to hear and comment upon emerging suggestions from the 1912 Center Use Committee, Prior Town Hall meeting, and related Focus Groups.

WHERE: 1912 Center, Great Room, 410 East Third Street, Moscow. Access is from Third Street Plaza entrance.

WHEN: Tuesday evening, March 1, 2005 from 7 to 9 p.m.

WHY: Public input is important to further planning for the future of the 1912 Center. A new, informational video about the 1912 Center development and topics of consideration will be shown. A discussion of the emerging suggestions for uses, business strategies, and evaluation criteria will be held. Your questions, comments and responses help make citizen involvement in city decision making effective.
