All Things Right Minded: An Op-Ed from "The People's Republic of Moscow"

The number of conservative students is on the rise in higher education

The Moscow-Pullman Daily News has two long articles on the rise of conservative students in higher education; and the fact that they are speaking up (not keeping their mouths shut like they used to).

I wonder how much of this has to do with the number of homeschool and private schooled students that are now coming into academia? We're seeing the second generation of homeschoolers now, and they are confident in their faith and (having not been brainwashed by the system) are almost always conservatives. And they are well educated (check out the SAT scores; and that they can put together a comprehensive sentence).

This could well be the beginnings of a seismic shift in education.

The seismic shift has to happen sooner or later. The "conservative" birthrate is much higher, in addition to what Mr Courtney mentioned. Also the formation of legal aid groups to help conservative students has been a real boon to their survival.

As more and more heathens "choose" to not have children the number of Godly souls will increase. If the number of Christian births out number the number of Islamic births the battle will be over in 3 or 4 generations.

"Be fruitful and multiply" has never been recinded by God!

If it were only about mathematical superiority things would have ended a long time ago.

Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

(Eph 6: 10-13 KJV)
