Why Marijuana is not Medicine

Training the Stakeholders

Oct. 13, 2011
3-5 pm

Idaho State Police
615 W Wilbur
Cd'A, ID 83815

Presented by: Monte Stiles

former Assistant United States Attorney for the District of Idaho, Supervising the Organized Crime/Drug Enforcement Task Force

“Training the Stakeholders” is designed to:

- Inform of the dangers of drug legalization
- Educate law enforcement agencies, public officials, drug education groups and community leaders regarding the resources and tactics used by pro-drug lobbying organizations
- Motivate citizens to take action
- Provide proven techniques to protect Idaho from the pro-drug media messages that contradict the scientific evidence regarding the social, legal and medical harms caused by the use and trafficking of marijuana
