

For your consideration: 17h 30 year old Belgian Mare. Holly. This grand lady is being offered for $300. Holly is a kind, gentle giant. She would be perfect for an adult learning to ride or someone just looking for an occasional jaunt. Holly does not look, nor act like her age. She is on no medications for any older horse afflictions. Holly is a little slow getting out of the gate, but she warms up quickly and offers a big huge trot when asked. Her current feed regimen is 2 flakes of local grass hay and 4lbs of Excel Senior feed twice a day. Very easy keeper. An illness is forcing me to sell Holly, otherwise I would have kept her until she passed. I am hoping to find someone who can take my place and love this girl.

For your consideration: 18h 2010 Registered Clydesdale Mare, Zoey. Zoey is being offered for $800. Unfortunately, I have not been able to do a lot with Zoey due to an illness. Zoey is super smart, loves people and really wants a job to do. She has experience lunging, and has a surcingle and saddle on her back. My intention was to go bit-less with her so she has never had anything in her mouth other than the wormer paste. Zoey is looking for someone to do something with her, but isn't intimidated by her size. She would also make a wonderful broodmare.
